

AMY OGDEN

COMMERCIAL ADVISOR

AMY OGDEN joined Prudential | IPG Commercial Real Estate in 2008. She began her career in commercial real estate sales in the accounting department of the nation's largest commercial firm, CB Richard Ellis. From there she moved to NAI Horizon where she specialized in office and industrial properties. She has been a sales professional for over four years.

Amy has experience within a variety of segments of the commercial real estate market; including the acquisitions and dispositions of professional office buildings as well as industrial and retail segments. Currently, she is partnered with Dean Willmore, SIOR and Linda Gonzales and represents such notable clients as Harsch Investment Properties, Rafael Construction, Unicity International and Fright Dome, to name a few.

Amy has a B.S. in Veterinary Sciences from the University of Kentucky with a minor in Hispanic Relations and speaks Spanish fluently. She is also an active volunteer for the Nevada SPCA, the only no-kill shelter in Southern Nevada.
