ROBIN CIVISH - is a 30 year resident of Las Vegas. She received her BS in Business Marketing from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas in 1995.

Prior to joining Prudential IPG in August 2008, she spent 17 years with The Vista Group. At Vista, Robin worked in all areas of commercial real estate. Working her way from the bottom up, she began as a runner/receptionist in 1991 and quickly moved into the accounting department. Upon graduation from college in 1995, she received her broker/salesman license and was promoted to a full time property manager, overseeing 500,000+ square feet of office and retail centers. In 1997, she was promoted to Corporate Broker for Vista Realty, Inc. When Vista began a full service brokerage department in 2001, Robin shifted gears from property management to leasing and sales.

At Prudential IPG Commercial Real Estate, Robin is a Senior Commercial Advisor, representing Landlords and Tenants in retail and office leasing/sales. She believes that it is her role as a professional real estate agent to make sure that her clients receive the highest quality of customer service. She strives to place the right tenant in the right space, to help insure that the both Landlord and Tenant are happy and thereby creating a long tenancy that both can prosper from.

Robin continues to seek education in her field and received her Certified Commercial Sales Specialist (CCSS) certificate and received her CCIM Designation in October 2009.
