STEVEN J. SANTANNA has worked as a commercial real estate professional in Nevada for over seven years. He has extensive market knowledge and has successfully established and maintained relationships with both local and national corporations. He thrives on high ethical standards as well as creating value for every client.

Mr. Santanna supports his clients by managing the negotiation process from start to finish, and providing them with an up to date, detailed overview of market conditions and trends while also focusing on marketing strategies to ensure their overall satisfaction.

Mr. Santanna has a thorough understanding of the Las Vegas office and industrial market and offers a wide spectrum of commercial real estate brokerage services – including landlord and tenant representation, acquisition and sales, marketing and consulting – from owner/users to investors of commercial properties.

His education includes a Bachelors Degree from the University of Nevada, Reno in addition to being a licensed real estate agent in Nevada and California. Additionally, Steve was nominated for Southern Nevada Real Estate Monthly magazine's 2008 Emerging Leaders Award.
